Business Description

Pistachio is one of the most nutritious nuts rich in beneficial healthy resources. Despite their small size, pistachios are rich in useful and nutritious sources for human health. This product has a wide variety, but the most prominent types are Ahmad Aghaei, Akbari, Jumbo (Kale Ghouchi), almond shape and Hazelnut. The growth of sales of these products around the world has convinced many countries to start operating in this field. Iran ranks first in production with more than 337 thousand tons of pistachios in the Middle East. The United States, China and Turkey rank second to fourth largest producers of pistachios in the world, producing 335, 106 and 85,000 tons, respectively. Among the major producers in this field, Darys Trading Company has managed to produce pistachios and its kernels, using modern science, and experienced staff, packaged with the best machines entering regional and international markets. Today, Darys is one of the top producers of pistachios in the Middle East. It should be noted that Kerman province and Rafsanjan city are the most important pistachio producers in the Middle East.
